The image displays a grid of characters from a Hebrew font. The top row contains digits 0 through 9 and letters A through F. The second row includes various symbols such as arrows, diamonds, and geometric shapes. The third row features Hebrew characters like aleph, beth, and tav. The fourth row contains more Hebrew characters, including some with diacritics. The fifth row shows characters with specific diacritics. The sixth row includes ligatures like 'ff' and 'fl'. The bottom row consists entirely of Hebrew characters.
